

Nigeria is facing an unprecedented famine.

We Can stop it! Ask the world #WhyAreTheyHungry

In 2017,
the U.N. predicts
75,000
children will die
from hunger

That's
1 Child
every 7 minutes¹

Here's what you can do!

1. CALL your elected representative and ask #WhyAreTheyHungry? Let them know that you expect Congress to ensure that support is getting to Nigerian families who will starve without help.
2. GIVE to the Stefanos Foundation, which is providing food, water, medicine, care and hope. Go to www.standwithnigeria.org/donate/ and securely give through PayPal, texting on your phone, credit card or check.
3. PRAY for those who are starving and aid workers who bring hope. Go to bit.ly/NigeriaFactSheet to download our prayer guide.
4. TELL your network! With potentially the greatest famine ever, we need YOU to propel the message. Suggested tweets are below, and you can repost news articles you see as well.
5. LEARN from our report that examines the drivers of famine; Nigeria: Fractured and Forgotten. Go to bit.ly/NigeriaReport16.
6. MOBILIZE others to do more. Download our church action pack and get your congregation involved in this vital work. Go to bit.ly/ChurchActionNigeria.

In #Nigeria right now, 75,000 children are facing starvation. They don't need to be.
#WhyAreTheyHungry

- 4.5 million people face a crisis level famine in Northern Nigeria²
- According to the UN, "Nigeria Facing Famine Unlike We have Ever Seen"³
- Famine caused by Boko Haram violence and insufficient humanitarian response⁴
- $559 million needed to deal with food crisis for just three months⁵
- Mothers and daughters are having to sell sex just to get food and supplies⁶
